LETTER OF AUTHORIZATION

To: Whom it may concern,

We, ACDET LLC

Address: 1120 South Freeway, Fort Worth, Texas 76104, USA are the owner and the manufacturer of AbSim - a High-Fidelity Abdominal Palpation Trainer.

By this Letter, we authorize Survival Technology

Address: 6 Susan Street, Strijdom Park, Randburg, SOUTH AFRICA

as our sole distributor for AbSim in South Africa. Survival Technology will have the following rights and obligations:

- To register the product (if applicable);
- To import the product into South Africa;
- To offer tenders or to authorize sub-distributors to participate in tenders;
- To promote and distribute the product in South Africa. Note: Survival Technology is the solely authorized medical simulator company authorized to sell this product in South Africa.

We commit to supply and continue supplying the parts/accessories and consumables of the product via Survival Technology for at least three years after the discontinuation date and discontinuation notice of the product.

AbSim is fully warranted for two years, and extended warranty can be purchased for additional years, or parts can be purchased as needed. We guarantee the product and duly authorize Survival Technology to fulfill all installation, technical support and maintenance obligations.

This authorization letter will be valid for three years from the signing date and will be renewed upon mutual agreement.
